EPG for a simple drake 64-bit version Landon Lucas has transferred from UCLA to Louisville, he tweeted earlier in the week. Louisville's leading returner, Lucas had 206 all-purpose yards last season. He also had an interception return for a touchdown, and averaged 19.3 yards on kickoff returns. The Cardinals are going through a roster makeover as they move from the Pinstripe Bowl into the College Football Playoff, losing several key players to graduation and the NFL. He has the ability to make big plays but is also prone to missing tackles. However, head coach Bill Belichick has always defended him when the criticism came.
